Climbing wall horror

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A HORRIFIED mother told yesterday how she watched her daughter 'choking' while suspended 20ft up on a climbing wall in a crowded shopping centre.

Nine-year-old Miranda Vallance was being lowered down on a rope when her safety helmet snagged on part of the plastic wall.

The terrified schoolgirl was left dangling there for five minutes as the helmet strap began slowly tightening around her neck.

Mum Lynn, who had been watching with her two teenage daughters, immediately began screaming for somebody to help.

But she claimed that Josh Maye, whose company owns the mobile climbing wall and should have been monitoring Miranda's descent, was too busy chatting to hear.

Businesswoman Lynn, 42, said: "I was frantic – I could see Miranda just hanging there.

"Her little legs were flailing around and she was bright red in the face. The strap was so tight she couldn't speak and was obviously choking.

"I couldn't reach her because of the safety barrier but eventually I managed to tell Mr Maye who then climbed up to rescue her. However he seemed very slow in his response."

Miranda was left suffering from shock with a deep red mark around her neck, although after first aid treatment at thecentre:mk's Middleton Hall she did not need to go to hospital.

Lynn, from Stotfold, Beds, said: "She suffered nightmares that night and so did I. The image still haunts me of her red, panicked, choking and crying face looking down at me.

"It is a good job I had been watching her all the time. If I hadn't then she could have been left dangling there until she choked to death.

"The climbing wall was supposed to be a treat for Miranda and she had been looking forward to it all afternoon. I want a guarantee this will never happen to another child again."

The climbing wall was shut down after the incident and has now been removed. Bosses at thecentre:mk said a full investigation was being carried out.

They said the climbing wall company, Josh Macy Mountaineering, had passed all relevant health and safety checks and denied it had been banned from operating there again.

Mr Macy, in his mid-20s, who describes himself as a mountain leader and climbing instructor, could not be contacted at the time of going to press last night.

Train fare rise angers commuters

RAIL commuters have hit out at the rise in fares that will be introduced in January.

It was announced yesterday that prices will increase by 4.1 per cent, calculated by the average rate of inflation, plus one per cent.

It means the cost of a season ticket from Milton Keynes Central to London Euston will rise by £190 and could soon cost just over £4,800.

And readers flocked to our Facebook and Twitter pages to vent their frustration.

Tomi Gray posted: "That's family trips out off the window. We can't afford a car and it's supposed to be cheaper than a car. It's pure and simple greed."

The price hike was also criticised by Andrew Pakes, Labour's parliamentary spokesperson for Milton Keynes South.

He said: "This is yet another eye-watering hike in prices at a time when prices are rising faster than wages.

"The Government promised to help passengers yet prices are soaring with little improvement in services."

But the move was defended by local MP Iain Stewart, who as a member of the transport committee said he would be taking a 'close involvement' in the matter.

He said: "Demand for rail has doubled in 15 years while the network needs continuing investment. The current investment in our railways is one of the biggest for more than a century."

Roy's in the Pink over nomination

A MAN who has had the same bike since 1969 has been shortlisted to become a British Cycling Local Hero.

Roy Pink, from Newport Pagnell, has been shortlisted for giving up his time and energy to inspire others to get the most out of their riding.

The campaign aims to recognise the sterling work done by grassroots volunteers across the UK.

Roy, a former service engineer at Aston Martin, took up cycling after a car accident, but didn't realise how important it would become in his life.

The Roy Pink Cycles shop has been a much-loved fixture in Newport Pagnell High Street for more than 20 years and he has repaired hundreds of bikes for local people, as well as restoring and building Penny Farthings.

Roy, who was nominated by his son Ryan, told MK NEWS: "I've cycled in most countries in the world and I've done it all my life basically. I started back in the 60s and I've had one of my bikes since 1969.

"It has been great going for this and I'm looking forward to finding out the results."

Voting closes on Friday, August 30. Find out how to vote for Roy at www.mkweb.co.uk

Train station crime report 'baffles' cops

MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A NATIONAL tabloid newspaper has been accused of scaremongering after it published a report about crime at the city's train station.

The Mail on Sunday sensationally reported that Milton Keynes Central was the worst spot in the country for bike thefts.

And it went on to claim that it had the second highest level of car crime.

But, MK NEWS can reveal its figures are wildly inaccurate.

When we put them to British Transport Police, a spokesman said: "I am baffled.

WHAT DO YOU THINK?
Tell us at www.mkweb.co.uk

"We don't know where the Mail got these statistics. They bear very little resemblance to our official ones and give a totally wrong impression of crime levels."

According to the Mail, there have been 23 bike thefts since May this year.

That was four more than at second placed Westfield shopping centre in Shepherd's Bush, London, and seven more than at third-placed Cambridge railway station.

But the transport police's figures show only one theft in the whole of this year.

The Mail goes on to claim there were 82 car crimes.

Official figures, though, show only four – three thefts from vehicles and one offence of criminal damage.

The police spokesman added: "Milton Keynes station is actually a pretty safe place. We have only had 100 incidents of crime reported since April 1.

"When you consider that 2.7million people use the station every year that is a very low number indeed.

"We will not tolerate criminal behaviour at our stations."

Do you know this man?

POLICE have released an e-fit of a man they would like to speak to after a male exposed himself.

At 8.50pm on Thursday, July 25 three women were at The Green near Granes End in Great Linford when the incident happened.

The offender is white, between 20 and 30 years old, about 5ft 10in and of slim build, with short light brown hair. He was wearing a blue polo top with red and white stripes, dark blue jeans and dark trainers.

PC Lucy Talbot, from Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "I would like to speak to anyone who was in the area and remembers seeing this man, or anyone who can identify him."

If you have any information contact PC Talbot via the 24-hour Thames Valley Police Enquiry Centre on 101.

Alternatively, you can contact Crimestoppers, anonymously, on 0800 555 111.

Murder scene: Forensic workers at the scene where Rachel Manning, inset, was discovered

Rachel 'beaten' hears new jury

BY KATHRYN CAIN
editor@mk-news.co.uk

A COURT has heard claims a man from Bletchley strangled and killed a girl before disfiguring her face and dumping her at a golf course.

Rachel Manning, 19, was found dead in 2000 in the undergrowth in the grounds of Woburn Golf Club after going missing on December 10 that year.

The defendant, Shahidul Ahmed, 41, a restaurant worker from Chestnut Avenue, denies the murder.

In February this year a jury in the last trial of Mr Ahmed failed to reach a verdict after deliberating for 24 hours and 20 minutes and the trial collapsed.

The re-trial, which began on Monday at Luton Crown Court, is expected to last a maximum of five weeks.

Opening the case, the jury was told that Rachel, a shop assistant, had been to a 1970s-style fancy dress party and a nightclub when she walked off alone in the early hours of December 10.

Her body was found two days later by workmen who were laying cable at the golf club. She had suffered 17 facial injuries thought to have been carried out after her death and caused by a grey and yellow steering wheel lock.

DNA evidence matching that of Mr Ahmed was found on the lock after he was arrested for an unrelated incident in 2010.

After showing the jury a picture of Rachel's body lying in the grass covered in mud, the prosecution said that when the ground became too steep, Rachel's body was dragged and the mud and grass became lodged in her boots.

The prosection added that they believed Mr Ahmed had attacked Rachel for 'sexual reasons'.

The case continues.

MKNEWS BRIEFS

Man killed by train

A MAN was killed after being hit by a train at Woburn Sands station yesterday. British Transport Police (BTP) attended the call at 2.14pm. A BTP spokesman said: "The man was pronounced dead at the scene. Enquiries are ongoing to establish the man's identity and inform his family. A file will be prepared for the coroner."

Inquest into hanging

AN INQUEST into the death of an unknown man who hanged himself will be opened on Friday morning. On Wednesday, June 5 the man was found hanging in a small wooded area near South Grafton roundabout at the junction of Grafton Street and Childs Way, near to Toys R Us. Details of clothing and an artist's impression will be made available on the same day.

Teach kids to save lives

A TOP doctor is calling for children to be taught at school how to resuscitate people who have had heart attacks.

Vimal Desai, A&E consultant at Milton Keynes Hospital, reckons it could save hundreds of lives a year.

"It really is a matter of life and death," he said. "The procedure is not complicated. Everybody should know how to give basic life support."

Only 12 per cent of cardiac arrest victims – approximately one in eight – are estimated to survive in Britain. But in the US city of Seattle, where all children learn life-saving skills, the rate is 50 per cent.

Milton Keynes Hospital, serving a population of around 320,000, averages around 50 cases a month.

If half of those survived, that would be 300 lives saved every year. Dr Desai also wants businesses to provide basic life support training to more of their staff.

Travellers face crackdown

COUNCIL chiefs have met police and The Parks Trust to investigate ways of stopping illegal traveller camps setting up in the city.

They have vowed a crackdown after council tax payers were landed with a £2,000 bill for clearing up rubbish left at an illegal camp at the Blue Lagoon beauty spot. Angry Cllr Peter Geary said: "We will not allow anyone to destroy our local environment."

He also urged people to beware of 'too-good-to-be-true' deals to dispose of their garden waste or rubble. Often, he warned, it ended up being fly-tipped at beauty spots.

Cloudy2Clear Windows – Service With A Smile!

It's been a crazy few months for Cloudy2Clear Windows. The company which specialises in repairing windows which are steamed up, broken or damaged by replacing the panes – not the frames has grown rapidly as homeowners take advantage of their services.

Managing Director Billy Harley feels that it's all about service. 'Our product is simple. If your double glazing is misted up we can replace the glass at a fraction of the cost of a new window, in any type of frame, and with a new 5 year guarantee. But it's not just about saving people money, although that obviously helps. Many tradespeople have struggled since last year and I honestly feel that during the good times a minority perhaps didn't focus on customer care as much as they should have done. We make sure we turn up when we say we will, do the job the customer requires and leave their house as clean as a whistle. I often get comments back from customers on how they really didn't expect that sort of service which, in a way, is very sad for the service industry as a whole.'

Cloudy2Clear service the Bedford, Milton Keynes & Leighton Buzzard areas and Billy is finding that his approach is a major factor in his success. 'The truth is that it's not just the personal satisfaction that I get from doing a good job but also it makes good business sense. I get a huge amount of business from friends and family of people I've done work for, which just goes to show how much a little bit of effort is appreciated.'

Keep Railcare on track

THE redundancies at Railcare can't have come out of the blue.
These drastic situations are planned a very long time before they are implemented. Unfortunately the workforce are usually the last to know and first out the door.
Railcare has a full order book for its products and cannot pay its workforce. There is a cash-flow problem. The banks have the money, but are reluctant to lend.
Maybe there's a question of the profitability of Railcare, as there was with the East Coast mainline franchise?
There the Government took over the company when the operators 'walked away.' Under public ownership the East Coast mainline has paid £600million into Government coffers. A small part of that amount could help Railcare over its current difficulties; preserve jobs, keep vital traditional skills and apprenticeships.
Other options are that Network Rail could take over Railcare, or that the Government could nationalise the company.
If the Government fears that a precedent would be set by assisting Railcare, then that's a small price to pay for securing the company's future.
Anything is much better than the certain devastation that will result from any further cutbacks in jobs.

Shocked to get ticket

I WAS stung by a parking charge in an 'electric car' assigned parking bay on July 26.
Milton Keynes Council wanted £70, or if I paid in 14 days I could pay £35, so I did.
Having thought about the penalty, it was quite clear to me that I was parked in a premium charge space with nothing to distinguish it from any other parking bay. The only sign was a small one atop a pole four bays away indicating 'electric cars only', which I only discovered after being issued with a penalty ticket.
If the bay is for electric cars it should have 'electric cars only' painted over the bay, similar to a disabled bay, to distinguish it from any other.
As the premium rate colour coded strip adorned the bay there was every reason to believe that I was being invited by the council to park in that bay, pay the charge and then display the ticket.
Being spurred on by MK NEWS' articles, I have written to the council and requested that it refunds the £35 that I have paid. I will keep you informed!

Don't block spaces

REGARDING your story 'Plug pulled on Kathryn's fine' in last week's MK NEWS.
Milton Keynes Council appears to have been kindhearted in this case but you can't call that 'justice'.
The spaces are reserved for electric vehicles and have had signs up for months to say they are reserved. They also have a post with a light on it.
Parking a non-electric vehicle in the space is an offence and that's why the lady received a ticket.
The Government and the council have invested a lot in future vehicle capability and that investment is going to waste if people block the spaces.
While there are more spaces than users, there is a sharing arrangement, which seems perfectly sensible but electric vehicle drivers need to be sure that there are at least some spaces available for them to charge if they need to.
Name and address supplied

I struggle to park car

I DRIVE an electric vehicle and usually struggle to use the charging posts because the spaces have petrol cars in.
The signs are clear and the charging posts are obvious. People just need to exercise a little more commonsense.
There are only 14 of these all-day electric vehicle spaces at the moment, so it's a challenge to find one that's not got a petrol car in!
Name and address supplied

How is money spent?

FOLLOWING your story 'Leader defends MK car parking charges', in the last edition of MK NEWS.
What would make people happier would be to have some idea of how this money is being reinvested into transport improvements.
This news comes only weeks after Milton Keynes Council cut subsidies to some bus routes resulting in their demise.
And as part of its budget proposals for this year it increased the cost of concessionary fares for younger and older people.
So, clearly it isn't investing this surplus in public transport. We should be told where it is going!

Stand up for our NHS

IT IS very worrying to hear about the problems of the private health company running the NHS 111 service in Milton Keynes (MK NEWS, July 31).
Our Coalition Government's ideologically driven policy of slowly privatising our NHS service is a major concern for us all.
The use of private sector companies in other areas of the public sector does not bode well – who can forget the Olympic Games fiasco with G4S ?
The welfare to work company A4e is currently being investigated by the Government over allegations of attempted fraud and it is also investigating whether it was overcharged on contracts with outsourcing firms G4S and Serco.
With American and British health care companies waiting to tender for large parts of our health service, our much cherished NHS service is under threat.
The provision of health services and the pursuit of profit don't mix.
We need to stand up and defend our NHS service now before it is too late.

Jon Brett's City Life

His column written exclusively for MK NEWS

I DON'T go to the cinema much these days and it got me wondering why.

I used to love the thrill of soaking up the atmosphere in the tiered seating, the smell of buttered popcorn and the anticipation of the movie starting.

Even before The Point opened, I saw my first 'X' certificate film at The Fleapit that was Newport Pagnell's independent cinema (Alien was the film, if you were wondering, aged 14).

As a young reporter, I used to write the movie reviews for the local paper when The Point opened and was the first multiplex cinema in the country.

As a movie reviewer, I interviewed stars including Tom Cruise and even attended the premiere of the original Mission Impossible. I've also interviewed Meryl Streep, Nicole Kidman, Meg Ryan and Dennis Quaid to name a few.

But nowadays I don't even know what is on at the cinema. I think the reason for this is partly the fact cinemas no longer advertise in local newspapers, showing what's on and what time the performances are. Now you have to log on and scroll through narrowing down to your local multiplex.

And it's not cheap either. I wouldn't expect to see much change out of £50 for a night out for two at 'the pictures', as we used to call it. Even more if it's in wretched 3D!

Interestingly, cinema attendance is up and continues to grow, which strikes me as strange in these days of austerity. Cineworld reported a 15.3 per cent rise in pre-tax profits for 2012.

The last movie I saw at the cinema was Skyfall – but only because I dreamt of being Bond one day!

Serving up: Robin Edmunds is offering free lunch to Railcare workers this week in Wolverton

Free lunch for Railcare staff

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

WORKERS at Railcare are getting a helping hand from a local cafe, which is offering them free lunches for the rest of the week.

Employees at Wolverton Works say the 'lovely gesture' by Streetfood Cafe at the Craufurd Arms in Stratford Road is 'appreciated by all the staff'. The move comes after Railcare went into administration and 118 jobs were axed.

The brains behind the scheme is Streetfood owner Robin Edmunds.

He said: "We just wanted to help the workers who are going through a tough time.

"The workers can come in until Friday between 11am and 2pm and if they show their work ID they can get a free lunch. The whole of Wolverton is getting behind the workers."

Yesterday a number of workers took up Robin's offer.

One of them was Karen Gregory, an executive assistant who has worked for Railcare for five years.

"It was a lovely gesture which was quite heart warming," she said. "We are trying to see it as business as usual down at the works. We are doing all that we can."

The free meals will also help many members of staff who have not been paid.

Administrators BDO has announced it will pay staff in advance for August 1-10, but there are insufficient funds to be able to pay wages in arrears for the month leading up to administration.

Phil Mitchell, engineering director at Railcare, said: "It's touching the community are supporting us and this gesture will help workers from a financial point of view."

TESCO has denied rumours it is on the verge of scrapping controversial plans to build a giant supermarket on the former Aston Martin Lagonda site in Newport Pagnell.

It has told MK NEWS that the 14,000sq ft store will open as scheduled next year – even though work has yet to start and the site remains boarded up.

The supermarket giant was granted planning permission two years ago, despite a protest campaign.

"We know many people are keen to see the store come forward."

Charity warning over legal highs

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

SUBSTANCES known as 'legal highs' are on the rise in Milton Keynes, according to one charity.

And the news comes after police seized thousands of pounds worth of substances in the area.

Compass, based in Acorn House, Midsummer Boulevard, says it is seeing more young people who are using new psychoactive substances.

Project manager Joanne O'Connor said: "Although sometimes referred to as legal highs, these substances frequently contain chemicals that are not legal and cannot be assumed safe to be.

"They are untested and while many of the substances are called 'research chemicals', this is just a clever way of getting around legislation and no research has been done on them. They are not fit for human consumption so do not be a guinea pig."

Hundreds of packets of 'legal highs' were seized by Thames Valley Police when officers raided stalls at the Central Milton Keynes Market and the Agora Centre, Wolverton, after tip-offs that youngsters had been spotted using various pills and powders. In total 220 packets of powders and pills, worth between £4,500 and £6,500, were seized from the market and eight packets were found at the Agora.

Although the items themselves are not illegal, for example some of them were being marketed as 'room deodorisers', officers still seized them because of health concerns.

DI Simon Roberts, at Milton Keynes Police Station, said: "These substances mimic both the effects and addictions of banned drugs."

Froome fan Mike wins shirt

A BIG Chris Froome fan scooped a prize to remember – a signed jersey from the man himself and his Team Sky colleagues.

Mike Fielder, 71, from West Bletchley, was chuffed to discover he had won the shirt when he entered MK NEWS' competition just a few weeks ago.

And he was particularly delighted as main man Froome followed Mike's path by being brought up in East Africa.

"I was brought up in Kenya before I moved to MK in 1985, so it was nice to see Chris, who trained in Africa, win the Tour de France.

"I didn't manage to see the whole race, but I watched what I could."

Mike has not yet decided what to do with the jersey, but one possibility is that it could help raise money for building work at Whaddon Way Church, where Mike is a member.

The prize was given to celebrate the third year of SkyRide, which takes place at Willen Lake on Sunday, August 25 from 10am.

MKNEWSBRIEFS

Cadet training

ARMY cadets from Milton Keynes have been experiencing life in the field.

In total 269 Army Cadets and 54 adults trained on Salisbury Plain.

Activities included field craft training, first aid, navigation, shooting, adventure training and canoeing.

Dead man named

THE MAN killed in the M1 collision at Newport Pagnell Services has been named as Anthony John Byrne.

The 54-year-old from Kent was a passenger in a lorry that hit the central reservation and turned over.

A full inquest will take place on December 17.

Still time to enter competition

THERE is still time to enter the MK NEWS and MKWeb Baby and Toddler of the Year contest.

We're on a mission to find the city's cutest tots and hundreds of participants are once again expected to take part.

If you have a child aged from 0-6 years, take them along to one of our photography sessions. Pictures are being taken at Tesco in Bletchley until Sunday and Tesco in Kingston from August 20-25.

It is free to enter the contest, which is sponsored by GAP.

Water park mystery deepens

MYSTERY deepened this week over plans for a new water park in Milton Keynes.

Local businessman Mark Stuart, the man behind a website announcing the Splash Planet venture, said: "I cannot say too much at the moment.

"The only thing I can say is that it's currently still in the very early stages of planning and it's being reviewed to see how viable the concept is.

"We hope it goes ahead, but people and organisations will always stand in the way. If not viable it may not progress any further."

Cash boost for dementia care

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A NEW cinema room, 'reminiscence furniture' and sensory gardens are among the improvements planned in a £345,000 project to help people with dementia in the city.

Courtney's Lodge, The Older People's Assessment Service (TOPAS), Broomfield Court, Dovecote Manor, The Willows, Tickford Abbey and Lathbury Manor will benefit from the cash.

Tanya Waite, manager at Tickford Abbey where a cinema room will be built, said: "This is very exciting news and this money and what we can do with it is excellent, not only for Tickford Abbey, but for Milton Keynes as well."

Milton Keynes Council is one of 116 projects awarded a share of £50million by Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt as part of the Dementia Friendly Environments National Pilot programme.

Cabinet member for health and social care, Debbie Brock, said: "This is great news for dementia care in Milton Keynes and shows the commitment we have to improving care and support services for local people.

"With this project and ongoing service redesign we are committed to working with partners and government to improve support for people."

Improvements: Tickford Abbey manager Tanya Waite with staff members Serena Dunsford and Mandy Holding and residents Beryl and Tom where the cinema room will be created

THE IMPROVEMENTS

- Reception area renovated and refloored at Tickford Abbey
- Reminiscence furniture and garden seating at Dovecote Manor
- A conservatory sun area at Broomfield Court.
- Extra furniture and equipment at The Willows
- Redesigned toilet and bathroom at Lathbury Manor

Head chef: Saj Khan cooks up a curry treat at Silk Road

Silk Road curries favour with book

A RESTAURANT in Milton Keynes got a 'nice shock' when it was named as one of the best curry houses in the UK.

Silk Road in Grafton Gate was awarded a place in the prestigious Cobra Good Curry Guide 2013 for the first time. Approximately, only 100 achieve the high standard required to feature in the book.

Hoq Abdul, restaurant manager at Silk Road, said: "We are honoured to be listed in The Good Curry Guide."

Snore-in protest is one big yawn

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

PLANS for a mass sleep out protest in the centre of Milton Keynes look like turning into one big yawn.

For only 20 people have signed up to camp out overnight on August 24 against the 'hated' bedroom tax.

And they risk being arrested before dawn.

For Seklow Mound, behind the Central Library, is a protected site under the 1979 Ancient Monuments and Archaeological Areas Act.

Protest organisers planned to tie tarpaulins to trees to give them shelter.

Christina Sosseha posted on their Facebook site: "It has several trees which we could use some tarpaulins to cover, so if it rains we are covered."

But the group admit that they have not sought permission for the sleep out.

Alison Kay Booden claimed they couldn't because nobody knew who owned the land. A simple internet search, however, would have revealed that it is owned by Milton Keynes Council.

A spokesman quickly pointed out yesterday that it was a protected site. He refused to comment when asked what action the council would take against the demonstration.

English Heritage said: "It is a criminal offence to carry out work without consent there or cause reckless or deliberate damage, such as with tent pegs or camp fires."

‘Hideous’ homes plan booted out

BY MAL TATTERSALL
editor@mk-news.co.uk

PLANS for a ‘hideous’ 400-home development that ‘looked like a 1960s council house estate’ have been kicked out by councillors.

Housing giant Barratt wanted to build the massive estate on land opposite Sainsbury’s in Witan Gate in the city centre.

But members of Milton Keynes Council’s development control committee voted six to one against the scheme on Thursday.

Linda Inoki, leader of campaign group Xplain who had fought the plans, said: “It was hideous – an absolutely dreadful development.

“The scheme was outdated and just not right for a forward-looking city like Milton Keynes with our wide pavements and leafy character.

“This looked like a 1960s council house development.

“One block of flats was 11 storeys high and looked like a kiddies’ toybox. Another part of the development resembled an army barracks. We want top notch stuff to make the city attractive. Enough shabby stuff has been put up in the past.”

Prime spot: City centre site where Barratt wants to build houses and, inset, Linda Inoki

Linda suggested the huge greenfield site would be better used for commercial development.

She said: “It is a fantastic position – two minutes from the station and with great road access. It would be ideal for some big company who could turn it into something special. What a tremendous boost for the city with perhaps 4,000 new jobs.”

Barratt is now considering its ‘next steps’.

Ian Young, development director for Barratt Homes Northampton, said: “We have worked closely with local groups to shape our proposals for 400 homes on land off Witan Gate.

“This would underpin up to 800 jobs over five years and create 400 much-needed new homes for local people.”

Pick of the parks: Chepstow Drive Park in Bletchley is one of three open spaces given a Green Flag Award by Keep Britain Tidy

Parks will carry on flying the flag

RACHAEL WEST
rachael.west@lsnmedia.co.uk

PARKS in Milton Keynes have picked up another national Green Flag Award from environmental charity Keep Britain Tidy.

Leon Recreation Ground and Chepstow Drive Park, both in Bletchley, and Eaglestone Local Park have once again been officially named in a list featuring the very best in the UK.

Cllr Peter Geary, Milton Keynes Council's cabinet member for communities and public realm, said: "We are delighted to receive a Green Flag Award for three of our green spaces. Milton Keynes prides itself on having more than 44million trees with green space making up 40 per cent of the borough.

"This award recognises and highlights that people in Bletchley and Eaglestone are benefitting from green spaces of the very highest quality and we're delighted that these parks will continue to fly the Green Flag for Milton Keynes."

The three parks were among a record-breaking 1,447 parks and green spaces awarded the recognition in the UK in 2013.

Paul Todd, Green Flag Award scheme manager, said: "We are thrilled to announce yet another record-breaking year for Green Flag Awards."

Changes planned as

TWO groups have received cash in the latest round of Sport England funding. Reporter SCOTT KIRK finds out how the money will be spent

AN ADVENTURE activities centre and football club will be making big improvements after receiving a cash boost this week.

Olney Town Colts football club and Action4Youth, which runs the Caldecotte Xperience, have received £40,000 and £50,000 respectively from Sport England.

The football club will use the money to build changing rooms for players and match officials. There are currently no changing facilities at the club, despite it running 24 teams.

Chairman Ian Stokes said: "We are overjoyed by this award as it now means that we can provide our 300 youth players with their own facilities and continue to improve standards on and off the pitch."

At the Caldecotte site, two changing blocks, which were first built in 1992, will be refurbished. Funds will also be used to build access ramps for disabled users.

Lynda Cockerell, chief executive of Action4Youth, said: "It's absolutely brilliant and we're really pleased.

"This will make a huge difference and gives us a chance to increase the numbers of people using the lake because the current facilities have been a limiting factor."

The money has come from Sport England's Inspired Facilities Olympic and Paralympic legacy fund.

A year on from the closing ceremony of the London 2012 Olympics, it has also committed an extra £40million National Lottery funding to extend the popular fund until 2017.

It announced the extra money on Monday from MK Springers gymnastics club, which used £50,000 it received from Sport England last year to create a modern facility in a former warehouse.

Including the new projects announced this week, £69.9million has been invested in 1,361 facilities.

Sport England chairman Nick Bitel said: "It's inspiring to see our investment is transforming sporting facilities."

Presentation: Colts' Ian Stokes and Action4Youth's Rich Wyatt and Lynda Cockerell receive cheques from Olympian Kat Driscoll and Nick Bitel from Sport England

Taking part: A festival goer writes a message on the Salaam Wall at the Arts and Culture Festival in Campbell Park

Culture fest is best

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

THIS year's Arts and Culture Festival in Campbell Park has been hailed as the best yet.

Organiser Anour Kassim, who is director of the Milton Keynes Islamic Arts, Heritage and Culture Organisation, said that the event had been a 'huge success'.

Attractions included a Salaam Digital wall of peace, which communicated via Skype to festivals around the world in Turkey, Dubai, Spain and Iran, all in aid of exchanging messages of peace.

There was also a disability fashion show presented by MK College, and a variety of acts showing off dance from Ireland and China.

Visitors also got the chance to explore exotic foods from around the world, with delicacies such as Zanzibar rice cakes among the many choices on offer.

Mr Kassim told MK NEWS, which once again backed the event, that more than 5,000 people turned up to the festival, which took place on Saturday and Sunday.

And he has already started to think how he can make next year's festival even better.

"I'm looking forward to next year already," he said. "We would love local businesses to get involved next year and help spread the message of peace.

"I would like to thank The Parks Trust, Interaction:MK and MK Council for all their help and also thank all our other partners, there are far too many to name.

"A big thank you must also go to our 20 volunteers who helped make it run smoothly."

Healthy progress made at hospital

SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

THE head of patient care at Milton Keynes Hospital has welcomed the findings from its latest inspection.

Improvements in areas of nutrition, patient dignity and keeping patients safe were noted in a report by inspectors from the Care Quality Commission (CQC), which was released on Wednesday last week.

Lisa Knight, the hospital's director of patient care and chief nurse, said: "We are pleased that the CQC has seen the improvements we have made and heard from the patients themselves that we are getting the important things right.

"With further improvements taking place in the next few months, we are confident that we can continue making the care and experience better for our patients."

Inspectors visited three wards at the hospital at the end of June, where they observed the quality of care given by staff and spoke to patients and families.

Pleased: Lisa Knight

They visited Ward 3 (a female medical ward), Ward 8 (male and female gastroenterology) and the Medical Assessment Unit (MAU).

They spoke to 50 patients and eight relatives.

The report said patients were treated with respect and dignity and always appeared relaxed with staff.

A similar inspection was carried out by the CQC in August 2012 and five areas for improvement were highlighted.

It is now satisfied that the hospital is meeting standards in three areas, including respecting and involving people who use services, meeting nutritional needs and safeguarding people who use services from abuse.

The CQC also recognised that steps have been taken by the hospital on the remaining two standards – staffing and records – and said that more time was needed for the effects to be seen.

As reported in last week's MK NEWS, 39 extra nurses and 74 healthcare assistants are due to start at the hospital in September and October following a £1.5million recruitment drive.

Health official visits the caring front line

BY JAMES AVERILL
james.averill@mk-news.co.uk

A DEPARTMENT of Health director has spent two days with Bluebird Care this week as part of the Government's drive to get senior civil servants out into the community to see for themselves what home care is all about.

Shirley Pointer, who works in HR for the Department of Health, spent Monday and yesterday with staff at Bluebird Care, which provides help in the home and has about 45 customers, providing 1,000 hours of care a week.

Fifty-five per cent of Bluebird's work is for private patients and 45 per cent is for the NHS – mainly end of life palliative care where it works with the hospital and local hospice.

Shirley told MK NEWS that she hoped to learn more about front line care during her visit.

"We have to be seen to be out and about and this will certainly help me understand how the whole system works," she said.

Shirley Pointer, far right, with staff at Bluebird Care during her visit as part of a new initiative by Health Secretary Jeremy Hunt

David Howard is the director of Bluebird Care, which was chosen as one of only three providers in the UK to trial the scheme.

He said: "I know how important it is for civil servants to get out of their offices and see what life is like on the front line.

"I am pleased we were chosen to be part of the trial which says much about our reputation as a high quality provider of care."

Bluebird Care worker Kathryn Mellor added that customers 'would be pleased that senior people are taking the time to find out more'.

Great outdoors: People in Milton Keynes are being urged to support the air ambulance by taking part in its Open Gardens Scheme

Green-fingered helpers needed

SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A LIFE-SAVING charity is looking for more volunteers to dig in and help raise funds.

Every year since 2002, the Thames Valley and Chiltern Air Ambulance (TVCAA), also know as BOB, has organised an Open Gardens Scheme across Berkshire, Oxfordshire and Buckinghamshire.

But the ambulance, which is MK NEWS' charity of the year, is calling for more volunteers and people to open their gardens to visitors, especially in Milton Keynes.

Robert Downham, of the TVCAA Trust, said: "Last year we celebrated the 10th anniversary of Open Gardens, which also became the scheme's most successful year to date raising more than £48,000 for the charity.

"Something we would really like to do is encourage more of our local communities in Buckinghamshire to get involved with the scheme, particularly in and around Milton Keynes, whether it is opening their garden or helping us to manage the scheme."

Tony and Margaret Finch are scheme co-ordinators and will mentor new ones in Buckinghamshire to develop the scheme further.

City performers taking the lead

SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A TEENAGE performer has been given a lead role in an internationally-cast performance of West Side Story.

Annie Southall, 16, beat hundreds of hopefuls to take the role of Anita, the fiery best friend of Maria, in the American musical.

The Loughton teenager joins 77 Stagecoach students from the UK, Malta, USA and Spain, who will perform at the Leatherhead Theatre in Surrey from tomorrow until Saturday.

With only three weeks between being cast to performing, the students have been rehearsing at a daily drama training camp in Twickenham.

Annie, of Stagecoach Milton Keynes, said: "I am having an incredible time preparing for West Side Story and to have one of the lead roles is amazing."

Meanwhile, two other teenagers from the city have been riding the waves of success this summer, dancing on Brighton Pier for Disney.

West End girl: Annie Southall, right, rehearses for the musical

They have also been playing leading roles in the largest ever staged performance of Cats in Birmingham.

Cassie Dorrofield, 14, from Stony Stratford and Paris Albarus, 15, from Shenley Lodge joined 100 Stagecoach students from across the country on Brighton pier to perform to Surfs up!, the final song from The Disney Channel's newest film.

Cassie and Paris then performed at the NIA in the main cast of Stagecoach's 25th anniversary production of Cats, which consisted of 50 specially selected dancers.

Cassie said: "The 25th anniversary of Stagecoach's Cats was one of the best experiences of my life."

Bakers hope for slice of success

SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

READERS and staff of MK NEWS have got their piping bags at the ready for a cake decorating competition.

Receptionist Marie Baker and Wavendon Gate resident Jacqui Ormerod hope to rise to the challenge of MK Gallery's British Bake-Off.

People of all abilities can design and make their own cakes, which will be judged on Friday by a panel including Cally Jenkins, editor of MK NEWS and MKWeb, which are supporting the event.

Marie has been baking since her children were young.

"This competition was just something I thought I would like to have a go at," she said.

"I'm not a professional but I thought it would be nice to enter."

Jacqui, who will be joining Marie in the adult – non-professional category, added: "It'll be a fun competition so I thought I would try it."

The winning cakes from each of the five categories will be on display in MK Gallery's entrance foyer on Saturday and Sunday.

The other categories are children 10 years and under, children aged 11-16 years, group entry, and adults – advanced.

Fire-struck pub picks up award

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

THE licensee of a pub that was severely damaged in a fire has picked up a regional award.

Tyrone Bentham of The Swan Inn in Broughton Road, Milton Keynes Village, has won Best Partnership Pub 2013 for the South East and London region in this year's BT Sport Great British Pub Awards.

He beat off competition from other pubs in the region to win the accolade.

The awards are organised by pub industry magazine, The Publican's Morning Advertiser.

Its editor, Rob Willock, said: "The award recognises the licensee who has been the best exponent of the leased/tenanted/franchised model during the past 12 months.

"Tyrone is a very worthy winner of the award."

He will now go forward to the final in London on September 12, which will be hosted by actor and comedian Greg Davies.

Damaged: The pub after the blaze in 2011

There he will go head to head with five other regional winners for the title Best Partnership Pub 2013 and have the opportunity to compete for the overall title of Great British Pub of the Year.

"We are delighted to be announced regional winners and nominated for the national award," said Tyrone.

"It's a real testament to the team's hard work and efforts to continue trading under difficult circumstances after the fire from 2011.

"The speed of support that Charles Wells [the landlords] showed immediately after the fire and continuing has been astounding. I'd also like to thank all our guests that have lived this journey with us. Their support has been overwhelming and has kept the business trading, currently at record levels."

The listed pub – one of the city's oldest locals – was devastated by the fire in December 2011.

It reopened in time for Christmas two weeks later, but it took several months to rebuild the damaged section of the pub.

Robin rides his way to fitness

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

A MILTON Keynes man has overcome health problems to complete his first ever 100-mile cycle ride.

Robin Lattaway, from Monkston Park, has achieved his goal of completing the Ride London-Surrey 100 to raise money for disability charity Vitalise.

Just two years ago, Robin was experiencing shattering pain as a result of two prolapsed discs in his neck.

Today, his life has been transformed and he has completed his first 100-mile bike ride.

In 2011 Robin, 50, began to experience pain in his left arm. After months of discomfort, tests and medication, doctors discovered he had two prolapsed discs in his neck.

In July 2012 and post surgery, Robin began his journey on the road to recovery.

While waiting for his neck to heal and weighing 16st 12lb, Robin began following Team Sky in the 2012 Tour de France and coverage of the Olympic Games.

The 100-mile man: Robin Lattaway on his epic journey

Almost a year on, Robin has lost five stone and has accomplished his goal of completing the London-Surrey ride as part of Team Vitalise.

Giving advice to others in a similar situation, Robin said: "I've finished the 100 miles on the Olympic circuit with a great bunch of people with loads of support, so if you want to, all you have to do is make a change for yourself."

Vitalise is a charity providing breaks for people suffering with conditions like Alzheimer's and dementia.

Explosive park proms

HEAD down to Campbell Park on Friday evening for Proms In The Park.

Milton Keynes City Orchestra has once again teamed up with The Parks Trust to present an uplifting and inspiring celebration of stirring classical favourites.

Soprano Emily Haig, who has previously supported Russell Watson and Juliet Pochin, will pour emotion into the famous opera aria O Mio Babbino Caro and then lead the triumphant second-half classics of Land of Hope and Glory and Jerusalem.

She is joined by MK-based choir, Polymnia, who are achieving fame locally and in Europe with their musical director John Byron.

The choir will perform the moving Chorus of the Hebrew Slaves and Zadok the Priest, a piece chosen for many great occasions in the UK and around the world.

All this will be followed by a stunning firework display.

Tickets for Proms in the Park, which takes place in the Amphitheatre, cost £10 for adults, £5 for children, or £25 for a family ticket (two adults and two children). Gates open at 7pm and the concert begins at 8pm.

A Truly Sincere 'Thank You' From Cancer Research UK

In these days of cut backs and continuous demands on our money, raising money is becoming increasingly difficult. As the founder and organiser Carol Osborne of Get On Your Bike MK I wish to make a public ' thank you' to MK News for supporting this event over the past years. This event is supported by volunteers and generous sponsors such as MK News.

Sadly, this is the last year due to reaching the dream goal of well over £100,000.

Get On Your Bike MK is suitable for both children (due to option of shorter route) and elite riders who care about raising money for Cancer Research UK because they appreciate that the only way to keep families together is through research.

For more information please e-mail me at onyourbikemki@gmail.com (07747025482) or for more information and on line registration please go to:- www.getonyourbikemk.org You will see what a great day i.e. entertainment, bbq, face painting, great tombola prizes and lots more. 8th September, 9.30 Furzton Lake, Milton Keynes. ©LW

Gig guide

Hitting the stage: Guns 2 Roses, above, will be playing at The Craufurd Arms, while The Nameless Three, below, will be performing at The Watershed

LIVE music lovers have a plethora of choice from the city's many music venues. MK LIFE takes a look at some of the groups hitting the right notes this week

GUNS 2 Roses are the world's leading Guns N Roses (GNR) tribute act and their ability to emulate the rock band has even been approved by members of the original and current line-up.

Playing many songs from Appetite For Destruction, GNR Lies, Use Your Illusion I and II, Spaghetti Incident? and even tracks from Chinese Democracy, Guns 2 Roses sometimes even throw in the songs that GNR did live that never made it to an album to deliver a different show every time.

They play at the Craufurd Arms on Saturday. Tickets cost £5 and doors open at 7.30pm.

Also playing at the Craufurd will be Tortuga, Amity, Atonements and Underwater City, as part of their Blackstar Band Blitz at 7.30pm on Friday. Tickets cost £4.

Atonements will also be part of the line-up at the MK11 All Day Music Festival at Kiln Farm Club, which features all kinds of genres from a great choice of local bands.

The festival takes place from 2pm on Saturday and to find out more details visit www.kilnfarmclub.co.uk

Finally, The Nameless Three headline The Watershed in Newport Pagnell on Friday.

The deceptively named five-piece hail from Hertfordshire and play an eclectic mix of folk, blues and indie rock.

Tickets for the 8pm show cost £3.30 from www.wegottickets.com

Atonements will be playing two gigs this week

movie mixture

THERE is plenty of choice for cinema lovers this week.

North Norfolk's most famous TV/DJ celebrity provides a film which he is calling his love letter to Norwich – as Steve Coogan's insecure character still clambers for the limelight in Alan Partridge: Alpha Papa.

This time the man who famously had a nervous breakdown after driving barefoot to Dundee looks to salvage his public career, after a violent turn of events at his local radio station.

We have our fingers crossed for this one, as the original Alan Partridge material provided some of the greatest tear-inducing moments in British comedy history.

This week could also be time for us Brits to make up our mind on how much of a flop this year's Johnny Depp summer blockbuster actually is.

He stars as Tonto in Disney's big-budget The Lone Ranger, with little-known Armie Hammer (The Social Network) as the eye-masked lawmaker in this western-adventure from the Pirates of the Caribbean team.

Finally, Percy Jackson: Sea of Monsters, sequel to the mildly successful The Lightning Thief, tries to fill some of the void left by the likes of Harry Potter – as the son of Poseidon (Logan Lerman) and his pals journey to the Sea of Monsters to retrieve the Golden Fleece and save their Half-Blood homestead.

big screen

THE Parks Trust is hosting an open air movies festival for cinema lovers who want to watch films in the great outdoors.

Six films will be shown throughout the weekend at Campbell Park.

First up is Shrek at 1pm on Saturday, starring the voices of Mike Myers, Cameron Diaz and Eddie Murphy, which will be followed by Night at the Museum at 3pm starring Ben Stiller and Owen Wilson.

The day is rounded off with a showing of super-hero epic Avengers Assemble at 6pm, featuring an all-star cast including Ironman, Captain America and The Hulk.

Then the following day it's the turn of popular animated movie Madagascar at 1pm.

The Muppets will be on the big screen at 3pm, and to round off the weekend, Abba musical Mamma Mia will be the offering at 6pm.

The event is free and the best place for parking is at thecentre:mk.

Pictures in the Park is designed for families and friends, so The Parks Trust is advising people to take along a picnic, sit back and enjoy.

There will also be food stalls at the event.

WOBURN Safari Park ranger Bob Streatfeild, pictured left, writes an exclusive column for MK LIFE. In this month's edition, he talks about how the park prepared some of its zebras for the move to their new home

I'VE been helping the team of dedicated Woburn Safari Park keepers with a procedure for three of our Chapman's zebra.

Three males, Zac, Zaphire and Zanzi, are moving to a new ungulates (hoofed mammals) enclosure at Bristol Zoo and before they're moved, it's imperative it is ascertained the animals are fit to travel and are in full health.

Our vet works with keepers to sedate each male zebra in turn, to take blood samples, blood pressure readings and to check their teeth and hooves, all of which are a great indicator that an animal is healthy.

The procedure can be risky with any wild animal, hence the keeper team being on hand to help restrain the animals if they become distressed – keeping well back and out of kicking distance of course!

The Chapman's zebra species has been found at Woburn since the early 1970s and a herd has lived happily in the reserve since I started working here in 1981.

We have two zebra species and the Chapman's zebra are identified by their wider spaced stripes, compared to the Grevy's zebra, which has narrower stripes and a white underbelly.

The Chapman's are a little more aggressive and unfortunately don't mix well with other species – particularly when they have young as they try to drive the newborns off their territory.

The three male Chapman's, along with the rest of the herd, have therefore lived in a large separate paddock away from all the new babies and these three boys will no doubt love their new home at Bristol Zoo.

Your CV

When you send your CV off to a potential employer, remember that you won't be the only one. Hundreds of other people could be applying for the job as well.

So what are you going to do to make you stand out from the crowd? Why should an employer take a chance on you instead of someone else?

Your CV is your first real chance to sell yourself to a potential employer. Most employers will scan through a CV in about 30 seconds so you need to grab their attention from the start - and make them want to invite you for an interview.

There are five main areas to consider when writing your CV:

• Make sure your CV looks the part. Your CV should look clean and tidy - don't scrawl it out on a piece of A4 paper. If you haven't got access to a PC or printer, ask a friend or use your local library. Use a good quality paper and steer clear of fancy borders and front covers.

• Watch out for silly spelling and grammar mistakes. They make you look lazy and show employers that you don't really care. It's not difficult to do a spell check on your PC and if you're really stuck then don't just guess, reach for a dictionary. Get a friend to read through your CV for you - a second opinion is always useful.

• Make sure your CV is well organised. When you list your previous jobs, make sure the dates are correct and try not to leave any gaps. If you took time out to go travelling then say so - employers won't mark you down just because you've tried something new.

• Don't waffle. Remember that employers don't have time to read every word of your CV. Long paragraphs and sentences put people off, so try bullet-points to break up text. Make sure your CV is no longer than two pages long - employers don't want your life history, they just want to see that you've got what it takes to do the job.

• Don't list any failures. Employers have enough trouble finding someone who is right for the job - they don't need help finding reasons not to employ you. If you have to include a mistake from your past, make sure you show the employer that you learnt something from the experience.

Keep it simple

Personal details

Start off with your full name, address, home and mobile phone numbers and email address . If you are offered an interview, the employer will want to get hold of you so give him as many options as possible.

Summary/professional profile

This is the No1 area for selling yourself. Set out your main skills and personal qualities but keep it interesting and tight - one paragraph should do to cover everything.

Education and qualifications

List your qualifications and education history, with the most recent first. You don't need to list the grades for each exam you have passed unless they were exceptional results - simply listing the number and type of exams you've passed is fine. Also, list any relevant professional organisations you belong to and training courses you have been on.

Work experience

Start with your most recent position and work backwards, giving addresses along with start and finish dates. Set out your main responsibilities, duties and most importantly achievements, along with any skills you picked up or improvements you made while you were there. This is a really important section in your CV so make it count - but don't waffle.

If you have not had a full-time job before, detail any part-time jobs you may have held or any placement you have been on.

Other skills

Set out any computer skills you may have and the software you are most familiar with. Can you type, do shorthand or speak a foreign language fluently? If you have a driving licence, let the employer know. If it's clean, tell them.

Interests & hobbies

Briefly list what you get up to in your spare time. Put down any positions you hold in clubs or associations, along with any responsibilities and achievements.

References

Make sure you have at least two people (including one from your previous or current job) who will tell an employer what a thoroughly nice person you are and what a potential asset to the company you would be.

If you want to list them now make sure you include their name, job title, postal & e-mail address and contact phone numbers. Alternatively, just put "Available on request" so the employer knows to follow up references at a later date.

Add a covering letter

The main aim of a covering letter is to encourage an employer to give you a chance. You want them to read your CV, so sell it to them. You should always enclose a covering letter when applying for a job - most employers won't consider you unless you do.

A covering letter should let the employer know why you are interested in the job and why you think you can do it.

The hints and tips below should point you in the right direction:

• Keep it simple. A covering letter should be short and to the point - no more than six paragraphs.

• Mention the job. If you are replying to an advert, mention what the job is and where you saw it. The company may be advertising for other positions and it may not be clear which job you are applying for.

• Sell yourself. Explain why you are the perfect candidate for the job. Show off your strengths and experience. Refer to your CV - if it goes missing then at least an employer will know that you've sent it.

• Check it for mistakes. A silly spelling mistake in a covering letter is likely to cost you your chance of getting an interview. Also, make sure it is addressed to the right person in the right department.

A covering letter can be just as important as a CV in getting you an interview. It's your first point of contact with your potential employer - so make it count.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (PORTE COCHERES, CARRIAGEWAY AND FOOTWAY, LOWER NINTH STREET AND MIDSUMMER BOULEVARD (PART), CENTRAL MILTON KEYNES) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes has on 14 August 2013 made an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, to enable carriageway resurfacing works and kerb replacement to be carried out. The effect of this is to temporarily prohibit vehicular traffic and pedestrians from proceeding along the following portes cocheres, and parts of roads and footway whilst works are carried out. It is anticipated that the closures will be in effect from 9:30 am on Monday 19th August until 4:30 pm on Friday 23rd August 2013.

The following lengths of roads will be closed:-

- Lower Ninth Street (both sides) - it's entire length;
- Midsummer Boulevard (both sides) - from it's junction with Lower Ninth Street to it's junction with Secklow Gate;
- Midsummer Boulevard (the north-west vehicular accessway - between Lower Ninth Street and Secklow Gate.

Whilst the above lengths of road are closed, the alternative routes will be via:-

- Eastbound:- Avebury Boulevard (eastbound) and Secklow Gate (northbound);
- Westbound:- Secklow Gate (southbound) and Avebury Boulevard (westbound).

The following lengths of footway will be closed:-

- Lower Ninth Street (both sides) - it's entire length (from the edge of the carriageway to a point approximately 5 metres from the edge of the carriageway);
- Midsummer Boulevard (both sides) - from it's junction with Lower Ninth Street to it's junction with Secklow Gate.

Whilst the above lengths of footway are closed, the alternative pedestrian routes will be via:-

- Midsummer Boulevard (north-west side) – between Secklow Gate and Saxon Gate;
- Saxon Gate (east side) – between Midsummer Boulevard and Avebury Boulevard;
- Avebury Boulevard (north-west side) – between Saxon Gate and the porte cochere (situated between Lower Eighth Street and Lower Ninth Street);
- Avebury Boulevard (south-east side) – between the porte cochere (situated between South Eighth Street and South Ninth Street) and the porte cochere (situated between South Ninth Street and South Tenth Street);
- Avebury Boulevard (north-west side) – between the porte cochere (situated between Lower Ninth Street and Lower Tenth Street) and Lower Tenth Street;
- Lower Tenth Street;
- Midsummer Boulevard (south-east side) – between Lower Tenth Street and Secklow Gate;
- Secklow Gate underpass (through the Market).

No access will be available through porte cocheres within the following roads:-

- Midsummer Boulevard - between Lower Ninth Street and Lower Tenth Street;
- Midsummer Boulevard - between lower tenth Street and Secklow Gate.

The disabled persons' parking bays and Hackney Carriage stand located in the north-west vehicular accessway on Midsummer Boulevard will be temporarily suspended during the closure.

It is anticipated that the road closures will have an impact on the local bus service, and bus stops in the affected roads will become temporarily out of use whilst works are carried out. Passengers will therefore be directed to the existing bus stops along Midsummer Boulevard adjacent to the Food Hall (between Secklow Gate and Marlborough Gate), which will include provision for those buses affected by the closures.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of the Order except for emergency services vehicles and military vehicles being driven on operational duties.

The temporary restrictions and alternative routes will be in force on the dates shown when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs in accordance with Chapter 8 of the traffic signs manual, and these will be displayed in the affected areas a few days in advance.

The Order comes into operation on 19 August 2013 and will continue in force for a period of up to a maximum of 18 months or until the works are complete, whichever is the earlier. If the works are not completed within the period stated, a further order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (RAVENSTONE MILL ROAD, RAVENSTONE) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

FURTHER NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that due to a burst water main continuing along Ravenstone Mill Road, Ravenstone, Milton Keynes, the restrictions brought into effect under the provisions of the above Order, made by the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes on 12 June 2013 under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984, will be extended beyond the date previously notified to allow further time for repair works to be completed.

TAKE NOTICE that it is intended to temporarily prohibit access along the whole length of Ravenstone Mill Road, Ravenstone under the provisions of the above Order on 21 August 2013 between the hours of 8.00 am and 5.00 pm, however if the works are completed earlier the road may be re-opened sooner if it is safe to do so.

Whilst the road is closed, the alternative route will be via Stoke Goldington Road, High Street, Weston Road and Common Street and vice versa.

All other provisions of the Order remain as previously notified on 12 June 2013.

THE COUNCIL OF THE BOROUGH OF MILTON KEYNES (REAR ACCESS ROADS (PARTS), BETWEEN ALBERT STREET AND OXFORD STREET, BEDFORD STREET AND OXFORD STREET AND BETWEEN BEDFORD STREET AND CAMBRIDGE STREET, BLETCHLEY) (TEMPORARY CLOSURE) ORDER 2013

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that the Council of the Borough of Milton Keynes intends, in not less than seven days from the date of this notice, to make an Order under Section 14(1) of the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984. Its effect will be to temporarily prohibit all access along parts of the following three sections of rear access roads in Bletchley:

1. that section of the rear access road running parallel to and to the rear of Albert Street and Oxford Street, Bletchley from its junction with Regent Street to its junction with Cawkwell Way.
2. that section of the rear access road running parallel to and to the rear of Oxford Street and Bedford Street, Bletchley, from its junction with St Martin's Street to its junction with Cawkwell Way.
3. that section of the rear access road running parallel to and to the rear of Bedford Street and Cambridge Street, Bletchley, from its junction with St Martin's Street to its junction with Cawkwell Way.

There will be no alternative routes available for vehicular traffic whilst the above access roads are closed.

The Council is satisfied that these temporary closures are necessary to enable works to be carried out, namely, reconstruction works to the highway and the installation of storm drains. It is anticipated the temporary closures will be from Monday 26th August 2013 until Friday 4th October 2013, inclusive. The access roads will only be closed when indicated by the appropriate traffic signs, which will be erected in advance of any road closure.

There will be no exemptions from the provisions of this Order, except for emergency service vehicles and military vehicles on operational duties.

The proposed Order will come into operation on the 26th August 2013 and will continue in force for a maximum period of 18 months or until the said works have been completed, which ever is the sooner. If the works are not completed within the maximum period stated, a further Order may be made with the consent of the Secretary of State.

Any person committing a breach of the Order will be liable upon prosecution to such fine as is prescribed by the Road Traffic Regulation Act 1984.

Kay: "If I get sent off in the first 10 games I'll be sacked!"

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS centre back Antony Kay has admitted that his three red cards last season were disappointing for himself and the club.

The 30-year-old was dismissed in games against Oldham Athletic, Yeovil Town and Crewe Alexandra in the last campaign, and he quipped that any more at the start of this season could see him handed his P45.

"In five seasons I wasn't sent off and then when I came here I had three in a season," said Kay.

"I was disappointed with that - I let myself down and everybody down and I'm the first one to admit that I did wrong.

"If I get sent off in any of the first ten games this season I think the chairman's going to sack me!"

On Saturday Kay is likely to have his hands full when he comes up against Preston North End's former England international Kevin Davies, and the Barnsley lad is expecting a physical battle with the ex Bolton Wanderers striker.

"You always look at the opponents you're playing against and this week it's Kevin Davies, who has been a good player in his time," said Kay.

"It's going to be a physical game with the way they're set up. They play a long ball kind of game and their players are set up for that.

"We've got to counter-act that but we focus on ourselves.

"Our game plan doesn't change - everybody knows what we do and that's why we're good at it and trust that it goes right."

The season has begun very positively from the defender's perspective, with two clean sheets kept in the league so far, although Kay wasn't all happy with the Dons performance on Saturday.

"We would have taken two clean sheets in the first two games at the start of the season," he said.

"On Saturday in the first half we were brilliant. In the second half we let ourselves down a bit but a win's a win and you need to get those points on the board."

Kay is now looking forward to working with the squad's younger players in the coming weeks.

"They've shown they can cope with the physical part of the game and these players coming through like Dele [Alli], Georgio [Rasulo], Brendan [Galloway] and George [Baldock] show we have great young players at this club that can blend with the old," said Kay.

"I always remember being a young lad playing at Barnsley and you remember the older players telling you when you're doing things right.

"There are a few of us that can help with the progression of these younger players here. There are new signings coming in and gelling in really well, and Dele and George are like two new signings so it's looking good."

Baldock sets sights on some sibling rivalry

MK DONS midfielder George Baldock is hoping he can keep his place in the side so that he can come face-to-face with brother Sam against Bristol City a week on Saturday.

The 21-year-old put in a superb performance against Crewe Alexandra at the weekend and of the big games coming up for the Dons, Baldock has his eye on the City clash.

"Bristol City I can tell you I am looking forward to and I want to keep my place for that game because it'll be an emotional one for my mum and dad," said Baldock.

"It'll be nice to play against Sam and if there's a 50-50 there who knows what's going to happen?"

Striker Sam was one of the first big success stories from the Dons academy before he made a big money move to West Ham United in 2011.

It didn't quite work out at Upton Park though and he is now back in League One with City, where he has been made captain.

George is now part of a much younger set-up at Dons this season, and he is relishing the opportunity being afforded to him by the club.

"It's great being part of this team," he said. "With the likes of Dele [Alli] and Giorgio [Rasulo] playing for England it's phenomenal.

"But you can't forget the chairman, the manager, Gary Waddock and Damien Doyle the fitness coach. They are pushing all the time for these young players to get a chance.

"They work very hard with them and a lot of other clubs and managers just bypass the younger players and go and buy proven players in the league rather than give the young players a chance to blood in, so it's a great club to be involved in.

"We're definitely going places because in training the quality of the young lads at times is ridiculous."

Baldock was on loan at Icelandic side IBV Vestmannaeyja last season, where he made 12 appearances, scoring once, and that experience along with a good pre-season are what he believes is giving him the opportunity to impress in the first team in 2013-14.

"Iceland was the best three months of my life because I was playing regularly and I was maturing and growing up," he said.

"I have always been really small so I've worked really hard on my physique. I was given a specific plan, with sets and reps, and I've just been doing that, raising the weights and I've got a lot stronger and fitter. It's left me feeling like the next day I can play another 90 minutes."

Swans start with defeat

A LOOK at the non-league football action from the weekend of August 10/11.

United Counties League

NEWPORT Pagnell Town didn't get off to the best of starts in the new ChromaSport and Trophies United Counties Premier League season.

The Swans succumbed to a 3-0 loss at Peterborough Northern Star, with Nicholas Davey, Luke Kennedy and William Smith grabbing the goals for the hosts.

Newport Pagnell are next in FA Cup action on Saturday, when they will entertain Hatfield Town at Willen Road in the Extra Preliminary Round of the competition. The winners of the game will receive £1,500 and the Preliminary Round then takes place in two weeks.

Dean Robb got the first goal of the game for Olney Town but that wasn't enough as visitors Burton Park Wanderers ran out as 3-1 winners in the first game of the Division One campaign.

Cavell Jarvis and Leigh Chapman reversed the fortunes of the home side to make it 2-1 at half time, and Mike Houghton made sure of the points for Burton Park after the break.

Spartan South Midlands League

DIVISION One outfit Stony Stratford Town got off to a dreadful start when they were hammered 10-0 by Sun Postal Sports.

Old Bradwell United also got off to a poor start as they lost 4-0 at Hale Leys United in Division Two.

Elsewhere in Division Two, Willen lost 6-3 at home to Mursley United, while Tring Corinthians beat New Bradwell St Peter 2-0. But it was better news for Wolverton Town who picked up a 4-2 success at home to Caddington.

ICE HOCKEY

Cov good for Nicklin

BY SCOTT KIRK
scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

NEW Milton Keynes Lightning signing Josh Nicklin says the team playing in Coventry this season was a big factor in him joining the club on a two-way contract.

With Planet Ice in Milton Keynes being re-developed, some players have left Lightning this summer due to them playing in Coventry this season, including the likes of Chris Wiggins and Nicky Chinn.

But for Nicklin the move works out perfectly for him as he lives within walking distance of Coventry's Sky Dome.

"It's brilliant news for me to come back," said Nicklin, a former product of the MK youth system who will be shared with Coventry Blaze NL.

"Lightning playing in Coventry was a pretty big factor in me wanting to play because I can walk to the rink from home.

"I'm hoping this will provide a springboard for me to earn a one way contract in the English Premier League, whether that's with Milton Keynes or somewhere else in the future."

NEW BOY: Josh Nicklin in action. Picture: Scott Wiggins

Nicklin, who can play as a forward or on the wing, begun his junior career with MK Storm in 2006. In the 2009-10 season he scored 20 goals and had 22 assists in just 14 games. That brought him to the attention of Coventry Blaze NL - the NIHL side affiliated to Elite League giants Coventry Blaze.

In his three seasons so far with the Blaze, Josh has averaged at least a point per game.

Coventry Blaze NL will have first call on the 21-year-old's services, and he will play for the Lightning whenever Blaze are not in action.

The exciting prospect brings the number of locally trained players on the team's roster to seven.

"It'll be great to be able to work with Josh again as he was always a big part of our junior teams," said Lightning coach Nick Poole.

"He's a very hard worker and I know he's looking forward to the opportunity of playing with us and showing us what he can do."

RUGBY LEAGUE

Play-offs end for Wolves

EXIT: Milton Keynes Wolves reached the play-offs in their second year

MK WOLVES' sophomore season came to an end on Saturday with a 64-6 play-off defeat at the hands of reigning champions North Herts Crusaders.

The previous weekend's thumping 71-4 victory over Kings Lynn saw MK move up to an unprecedented fourth in the table, and in the 1v4 / 2v3 play-off system, that meant a meeting with the Crusaders in Letchworth.

MK suffered an early blow when, shortly after kick-off, second row Dan Moon-Matten took a nasty blow to the knee which sidelined him for the game. With Dan on the touchline, Crusaders scored the opening try of the match.

MK then played well with ball-in-hand, putting pressure on the unbeaten Crusaders' defence, but they could not break through. A simple spill resulted in North Herts gathering and racing away for their second try of the game.

At 10-0, the game was not up and MK continued to assert pressure, but were repeatedly repelled by some fierce Crusaders defence that had only conceded a little over 100 points all season.

MK then lost another influential player when centre Charlie Manning took a stud to the achilles, and Crusaders raced away to score again. That was followed by another breakaway North Herts try.

Stuart Tomkinson capitalised on great work from the Wolves and crashed over the line for MK with a true forward's try, which Scott Aspinall duly converted.

Crusaders then slipped another MK tackle to score under the posts which brought the half-time score to 26-6.

While not an insurmountable half-time deficit, given the small squad and first half injuries MK were down to no subs and head coach and veteran player Abe Kerr was forced into coming on.

Tiredness and frustration on the part of MK led to repeated scores from North Herts, with Oli Fountain spending ten minutes on the sidelines for verbalising his frustrations within earshot of the referee.

With the luxury of resting and rotating players, Crusaders ran in 38 points in the second half, and the game was brought to a close with the final score 64-6.

Narrow loss for Stony as Saints sneak win

A LOOK at the local cricket from the weekend of August 10/11.

Northants Premier League

STONY Stratford were three wickets and 3.5 overs away from victory but Northampton Saints squeezed past them.

Vicram Sohal scored 80 off 108 balls as Stony scored 232-6 off their allotted overs, with Russell White unbeaten on 68.

Tyler Lorton was the pick of the attack with 2-33 in reply as all the bowlers chipped in with wickets, but it wasn't enough as opener Alec Swann (69) and Joe Collins (65) did enough for the Saints to win by three wickets.

Cherwell Cricket League

GARTH Davson's huge score of 169 wasn't enough for Great Brickhill as table-topping Horspath won by seven wickets in Division One.

After Great Brickhill posted 272-8, scores of 98 by Eason, Ali's 87 not out and 73 from Todd gave the league leaders victory.

In Division Two, Wolverton Town beat Aston Rowant Seconds by 121 runs. Wolverton were all out for 212 but a five-wicket haul from Shahzad helped dismiss Aston Rowant for 91.

Bletchley Town were bowled out for just 63 - a target which Bledlow Village were able to knock off in just the tenth over.

Four Counties League

ELSTOW moved up to second in Division One as Dan Wisson struck an unbeaten 80 against New City MK.

Eaton Bray defeated Newport Pagnell, who were bowled out for 32, by 109 runs, and Milton Keynes CC thrashed Thurleigh by ten wickets.

North Crawley saw off MK City by 104 runs and Olney beat Cranfield Uni by seven wickets.

SPORTSSHORTS

BASEBALL

MILTON Keynes Bucks got the two wins they needed to be crowned Midlands AAA Division Champions.

They beat Nottingham Rebels in a top of the table two-game clash to finish the season.

The first game pitcher, Chris White, was once again immense on the mound for the Bucks and Alexander Sencion was the big hitter, smashing two home runs to lead MK to a 9-5 win.

With half of the mission completed, the Bucks fell behind in the second game 2-0, but they came right back with four runs to take the lead.

The Bucks then lost their starting pitcher and big slugger Sencion due to a broken ankle sustained sliding into home plate.

What could have been a major blow seemed to spur them on and MK showed great team spirit and fight.

With great hitting from Tom McVay, Jorge George, Sacha Mckay, Chris White and Ed Wilmott, the Bucks rose to the occasion, led by Ernie Ayala, player manager, who had replaced the injured Sencion on the mound to silence the Rebels batters by throwing an impressive five scoreless innings for an 11-3 win.

Next up for the Bucks are the Halton Jaguars at Woughton on the Green on September 1, when they will have a shot at the National Championships.

The MK Coyotes travelled to Billericay to face the Essex Redbacks to guarantee a spot in the postseason play-offs in their inaugural season.

Although behind for most of the game, the Coyotes rallied in the bottom of the ninth to lead 24-20.

But after a few costly fielding errors and a hard thrown ball into the face of catcher Mo Hamdan, the Redbacks got the walk-off win 25-24.

The Coyotes now have a must win final league game of the season at Woughton next Sunday against the London Mauraduers.

ATHLETICS

IN the final Eastern Veterans League match Marshall Milton Keynes Athletic Club's more mature members took advantage of the home track as the men beat Fairlands Valley by seven points to win.

The women's side finished second just four points behind Fairlands.

With almost a clean sweep in the 200m there were wins for Phil Balderston (M35) 29.0s, Paul Canning (M40) 26.0s, Ivars Licietis (M50) 26.9s, Paul Toombs (M60) 33.3s and Di Baldwin (F55) 35.3s.

It was a similar story in the 800m with first going to Corrine Nurse (F35) 2m 32.2s, Malcolm Down (M50) 2m 21.5s and Rob Balderston (M40) 2m 28.2s.

In the pole vault, Mark Roberson (M35) was first with 2.00m, with Lesley Byrne (F45) winning with 1.70m.

Despite windy conditions there were still a few Personal Best performances at the latest Watford Open Meeting.

In the 100m Felix Lum (M15) lowered his best to 13.04s.

Challenge is set for Dons' young talent

BY SCOTT KIRK

scott.kirk@mk-news.co.uk

MK DONS head of coaching Gary Waddock has issued a challenge to the team's young charges to maintain the high standards they have set themselves.

With the likes of Dele Alli and George Baldock impressing in the 1-0 victory over Crewe Alexandra at the weekend, Waddock says the challenge for those players is to now stay in the team.

"Dele has done very well and has set a standard now which he has to maintain," said Waddock.

"If he drops beneath that standard he's set, people will be saying 'Is he tired? Is he capable of playing week in, week out?'

"There's a lot of attention on him and he's performed extremely well so we're pleased with his contribution.

"George Baldock has worked extremely hard this summer and he's come back in very good shape and taken that into the pre-season programme.

"He put in a good performance against Crewe and he's pleased with how things have gone but he's got to stay in that side and perform to the level that he's set.

"You've got to give credit to the coaches in the youth department and the academy and you need a manager to be brave enough to put them in, which is what Karl [Robinson] has done.

"It's very well doing it on the odd occasion but they have to be consistent for them to be able to push on and get into the first team.

"As manager Karl has put the young players in but there's no point having a youth department if you're not going to play these players."

A trip to Preston North End is next on the agenda for the Dons, and the game sparks a run of tough matches which includes relegated Bristol City at home next week as well as Sunderland, Sheffield United and Swindon Town.

And because of that run of games, Waddock was delighted to get four points from the opening week of the campaign.

"It was a good week," said Waddock.

"We got a good away point, got through in the cup and won our first home game so we were pleased with how it's gone.

"Preston are a big club and they'll be challenging at the right end come the end of the season.

"We've got a tough run of fixtures coming up starting with Preston but focus is on that first of all and that'll be a tough game for us.

"They've had a solid start, don't concede too many goals and they've got some real, talented players."

Captain Dean Lewington is being monitored and is touch and go to start in the Preston game, but striker Dean Bowditch will definitely miss out and Waddock says he could be a few weeks away.

WORLD TITLE BID: Greg Rutherford hopes to repeat his success in London

Golden Greg ready to launch world bid

GREG Rutherford launches his bid to add the World Championship to his Olympic gold medal this morning.

The Milton Keynes long jumper will compete in the qualification round at Moscow's Luzhniki Stadium as he looks to back up his fabulous triumph at London 2012.

Twenty-six-year-old Rutherford has regularly stressed that he is not content with his Olympic gold being his only major honour and has spoken to MK SPORT about his desires.

"Hopefully I can have a successful 2013 as well and I can win a World Championship title," he said. "That's the aim. In the back of my head I now know that I can win major championships, I've proven that. So now it's about doing it multiple times."

Preparations for Moscow have not been ideal for Greg as MK Athletic Club's most famous son has struggled with a hamstring injury in the lead up to the event, and was only confirmed in the Great Britain squad after being given extra time to prove that he was fit enough.

Injury has plagued Rutherford throughout his career, including at the last World Championships in Daegu in 2011 when another hamstring tear left him in agony in the sand pit and forced his withdrawal.

There are naturally concerns about whether he will be under-cooked for Russia, but UK Athletics have spoken positively about his condition and Rutherford himself believes that his body can recover quickly.

He will need to rapidly improve on his best distance this year though – 8.22m – if he is to feature among the medals as 15 competitors in the field have leapt further than that in 2013.

His big rivals ahead of Friday's final include home Russian favourite Aleksandr Menkov, who has a year's best of 8.42m, and Mexican Luis Rivera who has the best jump in the world this year of 8.46m.

Spaniard Eusebio Caceres and Chinese jumper Jinzhe Li are also ones to watch. Rutherford is ninth to jump in group A of qualification.
